ROCKPORT VENTURE SECURITIES, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2008 AND 2007

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations - The Company was organized on May 18, 2001 and commenced active operations on November 6, 2001. Its principal business activity is to provide private placement services for companies located throughout the United States and Europe. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Rockport Venture Partners, LLC.

Estimates - Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing these financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Cash Equivalents - Cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments with original maturities of 90 days or less. Cash equivalents are carried at cost which approximates market.

Marketable Securities - The Company accounts for marketable securities under Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 115 "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" (SFAS 115), which requires that investments in certain debt and equity securities be designated as trading, available-for-sale, or held-to-maturity. Trading securities are reported at fair value with changes in fair value included in earnings. Available-for-sale securities are reported at fair value, with net unrealized gains and losses reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity. Held-to-maturity debt securities are reported at unamortized cost.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed using primarily the straight-line method calculated to amortize the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. Costs of maintenance and repairs are charges to expenses while costs of significant renewals and betterments are capitalized.

Revenue Recognition - Placement fees are recognized on a trade date basis.

Advertising Costs - The Company expenses the costs of advertising as incurred.

Income Taxes - The Company and its parent, Rockport Venture Partners, LLC, have elected to be taxed as a partnership and, accordingly, do not pay federal and state income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the members of Rockport Venture Partners, LLC are liable for individual federal and state income taxes on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income.

Concentration of Credit Risk - Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist principally of temporary cash investments and accounts receivable. The Company places its temporary cash investments and marketable securities with high credit financial institutions. However, a portion of temporary cash investments may exceed FDIC insured levels from time to time. Credit is extended at regular terms without collateral after the company performs appropriate credit investigations.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Member
Rockport Venture Securities, LLC
Beverly, Massachusetts

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Rockport Venture Securities, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2008 and for the year then ended, we considered its internal control structure in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by the Company that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g); (1) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company, (1) in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; or (2) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected timely by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involved in the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above. The Company was in compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3 as of December 31, 2008 and no facts came to our attention indicating that such conditions had not been complied with during the year then ended.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purpose in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2008 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
